CELT’s Specialized Programming for New Faculty

• University Teaching Seminar
  – Each August; full-day event with morning sessions specifically for new faculty, and a series of three sessions in the afternoon focused on teaching topics
  – This program is linked to the SVPP’s New Faculty Orientation

• New Faculty Scholars Program
  – First/second year of employment
  – Calendar year includes 5 core workshops; and new faculty are encouraged to participate in other professional development specific to their position/needs
  • February: Course Design workshop
  • April: SVPP’s P&T Preparation
  • May: Preparing your Academic Portfolio Workshop
  • October: VPRED Grant Writing Workshop
  • November: SVPP’s Effective Mentoring

• Teaching Partners Program
  – We pair senior teaching faculty with junior teaching faculty for a year-long program tailored by each group to help foster effective teaching practices.

• Funding Opportunities
  – CELT provides funding to support teaching initiatives through:
    • Miller Faculty Fellowship Program
    • Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) institute projects

• Individual Consultations on Teaching Related Issues

---

CELT’s Mission

• Support, promote, and enhance teaching effectiveness and student learning.
• Encourage scholarship of teaching and learning.
• Communicate the importance of teaching and learning to both internal and external audiences.
• Serve as a catalyst for learning-centered education.