Committee Charge – December, 2016

1. Assess the current state of onboarding activities for students new to ISU, at the departmental, college, and central levels, in the areas of student life and academics. A potential initial step in this assessment would be to conduct a formal process mapping of new student onboarding.

2. Investigate the approaches to onboarding new students used by other large public universities and identify best practices.

3. Identify gaps and unproductive duplication in ISU’s current new student onboarding portfolio.

4. Recommend multi-year actions that can be taken at the departmental, college, and central levels, with a variety of potential delivery modes, directed at success in student life and academic performance.
Brief Overview of Process to Date

• Five subcommittees were formed in Spring, 2017
• Two series of process mapping workshops were conducted in July and September, 2017
• Four project teams were convened in 2017-2018, coordinated by a steering committee
• The leadership committee submitted recommendations in August, 2018
