Faculty Summer Salary Guidelines

Introduction

Iowa State University policy regarding summer appointments for B-base faculty (i.e., faculty having an Annual Work Period (AWP) of 9-months) is available in Faculty Handbook 3.1.1. Summer appointments are offered for a number of reasons, including teaching summer session or working on funded grants.

All faculty are paid on a monthly basis on the last working day of the month. Summer Salary is in addition to a faculty member’s base salary (i.e., annual nine-month compensation).

Using Workday functionality, HR Coordinators will initiate Business Processes (BPs) in order to add the appointment and compensation for individual faculty as approved by the department chair and dean. Planning for summer appointments should occur in the spring semester. When the department and college can plan ahead, then the individual appointments can be loaded into the Workday system in mass and in lieu of multiple, individual BPs that require manager’s approval for each BP.

Summer Salary Policy

Faculty members on a nine-month appointment have the opportunity to draw up to three months of salary during the summer term (May 16th – August 15th).

- Maximum compensation from any fund source and any type of BP is three months (3/9th)
- Maximum compensation from state funds and any type of BP is two months (2/9th)
- Faculty Summer Allowance Plan: Summer compensation is based on the rate of pay (annual salary) of the faculty member for the respective fiscal year (1/9th for a full month)
- The sum of Allowances and Period Activity Pay may not exceed 1/9th of the annual base salary for each summer month worked
- Effort Reporting and Certification policy applies, and compliance with federal regulations for federally-sourced funds is critical

The following guidelines were developed to ensure compliance with University and external regulations regarding the processing of Summer Salary compensation within Workday.

There are two types of Summer Salary BPs that will be utilized for faculty summer appointments.

I. Faculty Summer Salary Allowance:
The majority of summer appointments will be processed in Workday as an Allowance. In Workday terminology, this is considered “variable pay” because the summer salary is “supplemental salary,” and not part of the base salary.

- Available for the Job Family Group (JFG) of Faculty, and Annual Work Period (AWP) of 9 months
- Summer appointments for all research effort, administrative effort, and Teaching (except for “Flat Rate”) should be processed using this option of adding an Allowance
- The Start and End dates should align with the effort and work period.
The steps are indicated below, and the business process begins with “Request Compensation Change and results in “adding an allowance plan.”

Summer Salary: Effort Reporting and Certification

- Summer Salary from any source is in return for effort during the summer term directly related to the purpose of the funds.
- The charging of summer salary to sponsored funds must be in direct proportion to the effort spent on the project during the same period; payment from restricted gift sources must be for effort related to the purpose of the gift; and payment from faculty activity accounts, or other unrestricted sources, should be for effort related to the College missions of teaching, research, extension, or other scholarly pursuits.
- Faculty receiving a full three months of summer salary must certify that their effort will be full time throughout the entire period. No personal leave is allowed.
- Salary funded by the National Science Foundation (NSF) for faculty on a nine-month appointment is limited to two-ninths of their regular academic year salary. This limit is for combined summer and academic year salary received from all NSF-funded agreements.
- Colleges may require that faculty using unrestricted discretionary sources to fund summer salary may need to retain a minimum balance of unrestricted funding for future professional development, travel, or other similar purposes.
