The Dean of Students Office plays a vital role in each student’s success, and we are proud of the contributions each of our departments makes along the way. From programs and services that respect and incorporate human diversity to experiences that empower students as leaders, the Dean of Students Office promotes a sense of belonging for every student at Iowa State.

On the cover: “Air Spiral” by Susan Fiene
This sculpture located in front of the Student Services Building symbolizes professional support for students engaged in bringing undercurrents of emotion and pre-existing beliefs into harmony with new intellectual concepts and experiences as they grow in their personal and academic lives at Iowa State.

Dean of Students Office
1010 Student Services Building
Phone: 515 294-1020
Fax: 515 294-5670
TTY: 515 294-6635
Web: www.dso.iastate.edu

Iowa State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, genetic information, sex, marital status, disability, or status as a U.S. veteran. Inquiries can be directed to the Director of Equal Opportunity and Compliance, 3280 Beardshear Hall, (515) 294-7612.

Iowa State University prides itself on providing you the breadth of educational experiences you expect from a large research university and the social connections you expect to find at a smaller campus.

The Dean of Students Office creates opportunities for students to be academically successful and challenges students to be independent, responsible learners. We collaborate with the University community to help all students succeed. We partner with students, parents and families to facilitate access to resources. The Dean of Students Office advocates for all students.

"Nothing ever is. Everything is becoming." - Heraclitus – 565 BCE